

Thanks to an anonymous donation, Stage III will hire a professional guest director for one show each season and provide workshops for our members in acting, directing, and technical theatre.

The Guest Director for the 2008-2009 season will be announced during the September show, The Guys. The Guest Director will be directing our March show, Lewis Carroll: Six Impossible Things Before Breakfast.

Thanks to this generous gift, Stage III will have the opportunity to make great strides in our artistic quality. Our next goal is to improve audience comfort; new seats and an upgraded heating and cooling system are at the top of that wish list. Now is the perfect time to become one of our Angel Patrons and help make those wishes come true!

Be An Angel

Support Your Theatre!

Make your support of community theatre count for even more by adding a tax deductible donation to Stage III Theatre's Angels program. You will be recognized in our program... and you'll play a vital part in improving the theatre. As Stage III continues, your patronage can help make needed improvements to your theatre.

Angels are recognized at 6 levels:

Saints: Up to $49 above the cost of season tickets

Cherubs: $50 to $99 above the cost of season tickets

Angels: $100 to $249 above the cost of season tickets

Archangels: $250 to $499 above the cost of season tickets

Seraphims: $500 or more above the cost of season tickets

Guardian Angles: gifts in memory of friends and loved ones.

Bringing your imagination to life!

2008-2009 Season

The Guys

by Anne Nelson

Sept. 12, 13, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26 & 27

In the aftermath of 9-11, an editor and a New York City fire chief face their own grief as they write the eulogies for his fallen men. This short yet powerful two-person drama is a moving tribute to the heroes of that day.

Madam's Been Murdered, Tea Will Be Late

by Pat Cook

Nov. 7, 8, 14, 15, 16, 20, 21 & 22

A mansion turned bed-and-breakfast owned by an eccentric old lady hosts the usual suspects along with a variety of resident spooks in this terribly British, terribly funny farce with tongue firmly in cheek.

Moonlight & Magnolias

by Ron Hutchinson

Jan. 9, 10, 16, 17, 18, 22, 23 & 24

Imagine three men locked in an office for five days — two of them re-enacting Gone With the Wind while the third writes the script for the film, fueled by peanuts, bananas, and desperation for a big movie hit. Hysterically funny!

Lewis Carroll: Six Impossible Things Before Breakfast

by M. Lee Potts & Marilyn Hetzel

Mar. 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 19, 20 & 21

A magical retelling of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, this production is equally entertaining for young audiences and adults — creative storytelling at its very best. This will also be our Guest Director production for the season.

Five Women Wearing the Same Dress

by Alan Ball

Apr. 24, 25, May 1, 2, 3, 7, 8 & 9

Five bridesmaids at a wedding reception. Add a few drinks, a dash of gossip, and shake well in this edgy contemporary comedy about women's friendships.

Goodnight Desdemona (Good Morning Juliet)

by AnneMarie McDonald

June 12, 13, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26 & 27

You don't need to know Shakespeare to find the fun when an English professor dreams herself into the bard's world and discovers that two of his most famous heroines weren't nearly as tragic as the playwright made them out to be.
